Commissioner for Patents

Sir:

The Notice of Allowability in this application included an Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance. While the Statement notes a unique aspect of the method/apparatus of the present invention, there is no acquiescence by applicant that the patentability of the claimed subject matter resides solely in such feature. The claims, which contain multiple steps/means, are believed to speak for themselves with respect to this patentable subject matter.

Respectfully submitted,

ANDRUS, SCEALES, STARKE & SAWALL, LLP
